This Memorandum of Understanding is made on the last day below written (the "Effective Date") by and between:

University of Portsmouth Higher Education Corporation whose principal address is located at University House, Winston Churchill Avenue, Portsmouth, PO1 2UP, United Kingdom ("UoP")

and Universitas Brawijaya whose principal address is located at Jalan Veteran, 65145, Malang, East Java, Indonesia ("Brawijaya") together the "Parties" and each a "Party".

Background:

The purpose of this Memorandum of Understanding is to establish friendly relations, to agree to cooperate with each other and to identify areas of cooperation at either institution that could help foster and develop the relationship. The terms of cooperation for each activity under the Memorandum of Understanding shall be mutually discussed and agreed upon in the future, should the need arise, and shall be subject to an appropriate and separate written agreement in conformity with institutional policies in place.

Whereby it is agreed as follows:

1. This Memorandum of Understanding witnesses that the Parties wish to explore the possibility of collaborating together in various ways including:
 - 1.1 Exchange of information;
 - 1.2 Mutual visits by faculty members and exchange of students;
 - 1.3 Development of collaborative academic programmes;
 - 1.4 Development of joint research activities;
 - 1.5 Development of joint research funding applications on areas of mutual interest;
 - 1.6 Development and sharing of industrial, work and laboratory placement opportunities;
 - 1.7 Participation in seminars and conferences organized by the respective institutions; and/or
 - 1.8 Collaboration in sharing best practices across institutions
2. The terms of cooperation for each specific activity explored under this Memorandum of Understanding shall be mutually discussed and agreed upon in writing by both Parties prior to the initiation of that activity. Such agreements will have full regard to issues of quality assurance and budgetary matters and may be subject to written legal contracts as may be agreed by the Parties.
3. The Parties shall nominate the following individuals in order to liaise on the objectives set out in clause 1 of this Memorandum of Understanding:

4. This Memorandum of Understanding will commence on the Effective Date and will expire four (4) years from the Effective Date. Either Party may terminate this Memorandum of Understanding by giving at least three (3) months' notice in writing to the other Party.
5. Upon expiry of this Memorandum of Understanding each Party will deliver to the other all documents and all other materials (including, but not limited to, computer discs and other removable storage devices) made available to it in connection with this Memorandum of Understanding.
6. This Memorandum of Understanding may be revised through the mutual written agreement of both Parties.
7. This Memorandum of Understanding may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which when executed and delivered, will be an original, and all the counterparts together will constitute the same instrument.
8. With the exceptions of clauses 5, 10 and 11, which the Parties agree are intended to be legally binding, this Memorandum of Understanding is not intended to be legally binding or will be construed as creating any legally enforceable rights or obligations between the Parties. The Parties acknowledge that any formal collaboration will require the express formal approval of the specific authorising bodies and the duly authorised officers of both institutions.
9. Nothing in this Memorandum of Understanding is intended to, or will be deemed to, establish any partnership or joint venture between the Parties, constitute either Party as the agent of the other Party, nor authorise either of the Parties to make or enter into any commitments for or on behalf of the other Party. The Parties acknowledge that all or any financial arrangements must be negotiated and shall depend upon the availability of funds at the specific time.
10. The Parties agree to keep strictly confidential, other than to their advisers and as may be required by their respective regulatory bodies and statutes the terms of this Memorandum of Understanding and all other confidential information (being related to the subject matter of this Memorandum of Understanding).
11. The Parties acknowledge the merits of positive publicity but agree that neither Party should use the logo or any trademark of the other or make any media or public statement about the objectives set out in clause 1 of this Memorandum of Understanding unless that has been agreed in advance by the other Party.
12. This Memorandum of Understanding has been written in English. If this Memorandum of Understanding is translated into any other language, the English language version shall prevail.
